CONSTITUTION

(Adopted April 28th, 1914.)

ARTICLE I.

Name.

The corporate name of the Association shall be the Japanese Association, Inc.

ARTICLE II.

Location.

The main office of this Association shall be located in New York City. It may have branch offices if necessary.

ARTICLE III.

Objects.

The objects of this Association shall be to foster friendships and cordial co-operation among the Japanese residing in the United States of America, to uplift the character of each and every member, to promote their social and intellectual welfare, to safeguard their rights, to cultivate, among the members, the spirit of mutual assistance, and to strengthen the friendly ties that bind the peoples of the empire of Japan and the United States of America.

ARTICLE IV.

Management.

To accomplish the objects of this Association, two departments shall be established, one to be known as the Department of General Affairs, and the other as the Department of Mutual Aid. The management of these two departments shall be in accordance with the By-Laws.

ARTICLE V.

Memberships.

Any Japanese who resides in the United States of America along the Atlantic coast, shall be eligible to membership.

ARTICLE VI.

Board of Directors.

1. The affairs, funds and property of this Association shall be managed and controlled by a Board of Directors, which shall consist of forty members who shall be elected annually by ballot at the annual meeting of the Association, and shall hold the office for one year or until their successors are elected.

2. If any vacancy shall occur among the Directors, such vacancy may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining Directors at any meeting at which a quorum is present.

ARTICLE VII.

Officers.

1. The officers of this Association shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer and a Secretary. They shall be elected by the Board of Directors immediately after the annual meeting each year, and until their successors are elected.

2. The President, or in his absence one of the Vice-Presidents, shall preside at the meetings of the Association and of the Executive Committee. In the event of their absence a meeting of the Association or of the Executive Committee may elect its presiding officers.

3. The Treasurer shall collect all revenues of the Society and take charge of the Property of the Association and shall keep its accounts and report thereon at each regular meeting of the Executive Committee. He shall pay bills, when approved by the Executive Committee or by other agency authorized to incur them.

4. The Secretary shall conduct all affairs based upon the resolutions of the Executive Committee as well as of the meetings, and shall keep its records and report them to the annual meeting. He shall notify persons elected to the membership of their election. He shall have the custody of the seal of this Society.

5. The officers of the Association, except the Secretary, shall receive no compensation for their services.

ARTICLE VIII.

Executive Committee.

1. The Executive Committee shall consist of the officers enumerated in Articles VI. and VII., and shall act as such during their term of office.

2. The Executive Committee shall meet once every month at a designated place to manage the affairs of the Association, and fifteen members shall constitute a quorum. A special meeting shall be called at the request of the President or Vice-Presidents or of one-third of the members.

3. The Executive Committee may select from among the members of the Association a special committee to investigate any special affairs or to prepare the place of meetings.

4. The Executive Committee may select from outside of the membership counsel who shall then be appointed by the President.

ARTICLE IX.

Meetings.

1. The regular meetings of the Association shall be held in the month of April of each year.

2. Special meetings may be called by the Executive Committee or by the request of one-third of all members, at such times as, in their opinion, the interest of the Association demands.

3. Notice of all meetings shall be mailed at least five days before the day of the meeting, and in case of special meetings must also state the object of the meeting.

4. A majority of the members present shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE X.

Amendments.

The Constitution of this Association may be amended at any regular meeting, or at a special meeting called for that purpose by a three-fourths vote of all members present.

BY--LAWS

ARTICLE I.

Membership.

1. The dues for members of this Association shall be three dollars ($3) a year, payable in three installments, on the first day of May, September and January.

2. The Executive Committee shall pass upon all applications for membership and upon all resignations from membership of this Association.

3. Applicants for membership shall fill out on prescribed blanks their names, addresses, business and dates of birth. All applicants shall pay over one dollar as first dues when presenting their application.

4. Any member who is in arrears in his dues for a period of four months shall not be deemed in good standing and so cannot enjoy any of the rights and privileges of members; and any member who is in arrears in his dues for a period of one year shall be considered to have resigned from the Association and will be in consequence dropped from the rolls.

5. A majority of the executive committee may, at its discretion, suspend or expel any member for cause.

ARTICLE II.

Executive Committee.

1. This Committee shall select two Auditors from among the members of the Board of Directors.

2. This Committee shall publish Bulletins periodically.

3. This Committee shall elect a Financial Committee composed of seven members of the Board of Directors, who will, when necessary, raise funds for any ordinary or special expenditures.

ARTICLE III.

Rules of Election.

1. The members of the Board of Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of this Association, the names of candidates being selected from the roll of members by a Nominating Committee of seven members, who shall be appointed by the President who shall announce the names of candidates at the meeting.

ARTICLE IV.

Rules of Procedure.

The rules governing parliamentary procedure shall be observed.

ARTICLE V.

Department of General Affairs.

1. This Department shall control affairs relative to the political, legal, industrial, educational and social life of the members of the Association.

2. This Department shall furnish certificates of character, identification, occupation and residence to all Japanese requesting the same.

3. To accomplish the objects of this Department, the Executive Committee shall select from the Board of Directors two committees to be known as the Industrial Committee and the Committee of Public Affairs and shall name the chairman of each of these committees.

4. It shall be the duty of the Industrial Committee to investigate and to make a report, on the request of the President or the Executive Committee, upon any matter which, in their opinion, may affect the industrial life of the Japanese people.

5. The Committee of Public Affairs shall investigate and make a report, on the request of the President or of the Executive Committee, upon any social matter which may affect the interests of members.

ARTICLE VI.

Department of Mutual Assistance.

1. The object of this Department shall be to bring about mutual aid between members of this Association. In case of the death of a member, this Association will, at the discretion of the Committee, provide a burial plot and arrange for the funeral of said member. In case of the illness of a member, this Association will, on application for relief from a member, and at the discretion of the committee, pay any necessary expenses, or it will grant loans to such a member under suretyship of two reliable persons.

2. To accomplish the objects of this department, the Executive Committee shall select a special committee and also its chairman.

3. The Committee may select two sub-committees, one to be known as the Cemetery Committee and the other as the Relief Committee.

4. The Cemetery Committee shall manage the cemetery of this Association and take charge of all improvements and repairs.

5. The Relief Committee shall visit the sick and they shall decide what assistance, if any, is necessary, and in case of death they shall make arrangements for the funeral of the deceased member.

6. In case of illness or of death, a member in good standing or his friends, may make written application for assistance to the President of this Association, stating the circumstances of his illness and attaching a physician's certificate thereto. In such a case the President shall lay the matter before the Relief Committee for consideration.

ARTICLE VII.

Finance.

1. The treasurer shall collect all moneys due this Association and manage its property in accordance with the resolutions of the Executive Committee, shall prepare statements and balance sheets of all assets and liabilities at the request of the Executive Committee and shall keep the cash book, a check book, pay slips, etc.

2. The Treasurer shall keep all revenues in a Bank or Trust Company, designated by the Executive Committee. No special payments shall be made by the Treasurer without the consent of the President and Vice-Presidents.

3. The revenues from all dues to the extent of three dollars each shall be accounted as the assets of the Mutual Aid Department.

4. Funds belonging to the Mutual Aid Department shall not be used for other purposes.

5. All contributions which are not designated as intended for the Mutual Aid Fund and all incidental incomes shall be credited to the revenues of the Department of General Affairs.

6. All expenditures which are not designated as belonging to the Mutual Aid Department may be paid from the funds of the Department of General Affairs. The Executive Committee shall decide what expenditures shall be made by the different departments.

ARTICLE VIII.

Cemetery Regulation.

1. The cemetery shall be known as the Japanese Cemetery of New York.

2. The cemetery shall be located in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

3. The Mutual Aid Committee shall manage and take care of all matters relating to the cemetery.

4. Any applicant for a plot in this cemetery shall make application for the same to the Secretary, stating the dead man's name, address, date of birth and death, cause of death and the kind of grave desired. The Secretary shall give immediate instructions to the cemetery officials for the opening of the grave. Applicants shall erect the prescribed monument on the said grave.

5. Applicant shall pay the price of the grave according to the kind and also any other necessary expenses.

6. Any contributions for the Cemetery, charge for graves and other incidental income in connection with this cemetery shall be deposited in the designated bank or trust company as the Cemetery Fund.

ARTICLE IX.

Amendments.

These By-Laws may be amended by the Executive Committee at its discretion, but no amendment shall be made which shall conflict with any of the provisions of the Constitution.
